

WEBINAR:

Sex and Relationships

Interconnected UK (Icon UK) is pleased to invite you to a webinar about Sex and Relationships. Talking about sex can be intimidating for many people and some intersex people have additional anxieties and fears when discussing sex. This can make it difficult to pursue intimate relationships and/or talk about one's desires with a potential partner. In this workshop, we will go over basic sexual anatomy, discuss common concerns, and explore ways to talk about sex with less fear and embarrassment.

Speakers: Niki Khana

Date: 25 May 2021

Time: 18.00

The webinar is free to all persons with variations in sex characteristics and to their families. We look forward to welcoming you.
